Circular Vasant Panchami Celebrations

Classes: UKG - Class II

Dear Parents,

Greetings from Delhi Public School, Warangal!

“May the freshness of spring, brightness of blossoms brings in your life more joy and positive energy”

Vasant Panchami, also known as Basant Panchami, is a Hindu festival that marks the arrival of spring. It is celebrated on the fifth day of the month of Magh according to Hindu calendar. In 2023, it is falling on 26th January. The festival is also referred to as Saraswati Puja in many parts of the country and involves worshipping Goddess Saraswati. People dress in yellow, as the colour is considered auspicious and also represents the mustard fields of Punjab and Haryana. Saraswati is worshipped as she is considered as the goddess of knowledge, wisdom, art and culture, children are encouraged to write their first words in front of her idol, to seek her blessings.

Celebrating festivals in school is to create the spirit of culture and tradition, bringing awareness and building cultural belief in our tiny tots. Viewing this, Delhi Public School, Warangal will be organizing Vasant Panchami celebrations on Wednesday, 25th January 2023 during school hours. Our cherished learners are invited to be a part of the celebrations.

Dress Code: Yellow Dress

Wishing you all a Happy Vasant Panchami!

Best Regards

Delhi Public School
